Red Barn Farm

If you have an Extension Cord and a Power Bar, we have pretty much every other thing you need to get started growing indoors today or tomorrow!

Give us a call, come visit, have a coffee, tea or homemade grape juice and let's talk about the equipment you need to get started sooner than later!

Actually, the extension cords and power bars should be coming soon!

Privacy Assured

You are now free to grow certain plants completely legally.

But you still might not want your neighbors to know about it!

We are located in a nice quiet area where you can shop, share information and talk comfortably.

We are a Tree Nursery which just happens to have some great Indoor Grow Equipment stocked.

Check Out Our Cool Sign!

We will match any local retailers advertised pricing & still deliver on any pre-promised discounts that were agreed upon (certain bulk amount limits may apply)
